

Robert Burns Ellisland Farm

Ellisland
Museum
& Farm

There is a small shop next to the gate. The shop is open from 10am to 5pm. The shop sells a variety of goods including books, cards, and gifts. The shop is a good place to buy a souvenir of your visit.

THE BOTTOM END OF THE GREAT BURNING
OF 1800 WHICH WAS CAUSED BY A CAMPFIRE IN THE WOODS NEAR THE WATERFALL BELOW THE BRIDGE, THE SITE OF WHICH IS MARKED BY A STONE IN THE EAST FIELD NEAR THE WOODS AND THE BRIDGE WHICH REMAINS
THE REMAINS OF THE BRIDGE

Under New Management from 2020 – Robert
Burns Ellisland Trust – SCIO SC049973

Ellisland

MUSEUM & FARM

The Rural Home of Robert Burns

Raising Awareness Online

Secrets of Ellisland

Poet as economic powerhouse

Burns Women and Love

Treasures of Ellisland

Footsteps of Burns – Marketing Dumfriesshire. An Ellisland led project launched 2021

Things to do

Accommodation

Places to go

Plan your visit

Events

More

DOWNLOAD THE APP

STORIES

START HERE

PLAY VIDEO

GET INSPIRED

Maxwell's Otter | Monreith Bay

OPEN

THIS IS THE FARM WHICH WAS OCCUPIED BY THE POET ROBERT BURNS FROM WHITSUNTIDE 1788 TO MARTINMAS 1791. VISITORS ARE INVITED TO VISIT THE GROUND ASSOCIATED WITH THE POET'S SONGS AND POEMS COMPOSED WHILST HE LIVED HERE, AND THE HOUSE WHERE WRITINGS AND RELICS MAY BE SEEN

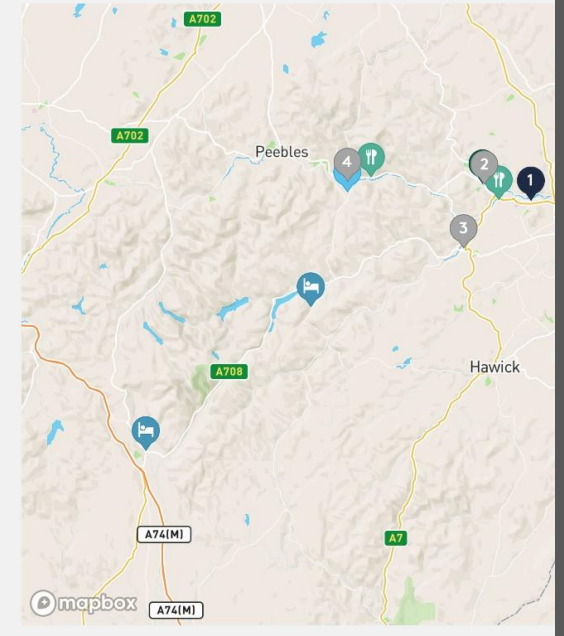

New interest in Burns right across the South

Stop 1 - Melrose Abbey

Today Melrose is a visitor's dream with history and culture galore. However as is so often the case, one's perception of a place can be made, or indeed dampened by the weather. So it was for Burns and Melrose. The weather had taken a turn and was wet and cold for May and his remarks reflected this: "the whole country hereabout, both on Tweed and Ettrick remarkably Melrose Abbey stony"

MORE INFO

THE
great tapestry of scotland

THE
great tapestry of
scotland

Robert Burns and the Scottish Economy

ROBERT BURNS AND THE SCOTTISH ECONOMY

Final Report
October 2019

Professor Murray Pittock, University of Glasgow

Centre for Robert Burns
Studies

*With contributions and an appendix on Regional Inclusive Growth from Dr Joel
Ambroisine, Research Assistant*

Burns = £203 mill

Mozart = £3.5 bill

Ayrshire Burns tourism = £155 mill

Dumfries and Galloway Burns tourism = £21 mill

Dumfries & Galloway Vs Ayrshire

The tourism sector now accounts for 5 per cent of Scotland's gross domestic product and 8 per cent of employment, accounting for 207,000 jobs. Burns-related tourism brings in just under £155 million, almost two thirds of which—£121 million—goes to Ayrshire and Arran. That is significantly ahead of the £21 million that is generated in Dumfries and Galloway, where Burns lived and died, so there is huge potential to promote the fantastic offering, perhaps through better marketing and by linking sites across geographical areas

The Place to Fall in Love With Burns

- We will be sustainable.
- Holiday accommodation
- Catering
- Tourism experiences -
SSDA
- Cottage restored to Burns
time
- Centre for creative learning –esp music
- A first class visitor
attraction and heritage asset for Dumfries and Galloway
- Using outdoor space –
special garden and
woodland

Plan to revitalise home where Robert Burns wrote Auld Lang Syne

The 'romantic' home the bard built with Jean Armour could be reimagined under new plans.

Robert Burns Ellisland Trust

Experts work on new plan to develop home of Robert Burns at Ellisland Farm where he wrote Auld Lang

Home of Auld Lang Syne seeks wider recognition

7 October 2022

ROBERT BURNS ELLISLAND TRUST

Ellisland Farm was where Robert Burns wrote Auld Lang Syne and Tam o Shanter

A masterplan is to be drawn up to raise the profile of the south of Scotland farm where Robert Burns wrote some of his most famous

£30,000 "sustainable future" masterplan to be drawn up for Robert Burns Farm near Dumfries

Some of Scotland's leading architects and heritage experts are on board to help develop the vision for Burns' former family home

Intangible benefits of Burns: place-making, pride, well-being

Pittock Report suggested that having a heritage asset close to your community would increase not just tourism but a sense of well-being, a “pull factor for inward, ability to retain and attract talent; investment” even improved property prices,

ELLISLAND NEEDS
YOU

AMC

- Volunteers
- New members
- Regular donations